FROM THE TABLES DOWN AT LUIE'S

From the tables down at Luie's,
It's the place where "Gunner" dwells.
To the open fields of Lawson's we know so well.
Sit the Raiders all assembled,
With their bottles raised on high,
And the magic of their singing fills the air.

Yes the magic of their drinking,
Of the booze we love so well,
Knickerbocker, Schlitz, Black Label and the rest.
We will serenade our Luie,
While beer and booze shall flow.
Then we'll pass out, and be forgotten with the rest.

We're poor little pigs, who have lost our way,
Oink, oink, oink.
We're pink little pigs, who have gone astray,
Oink, oink, oink.

Lawson's Raiders off on a spree,
Doomed from here to LSC.
Lord have mercy on LSC.
Drink, drank, drunk.

MERRILY WE ROLL THE KEG (Tune: "Goodnight Ladies")

Merrily we roll the keg,
Roll the keg, roll the keg,
Merrily we roll the keg,
Across the barroom floor.
Speedily we drink it down,
Drink it down, drink it down,
Speedily we drink it down.
Until there is no more.

Sadly now we roll it back,
Roll it back, roll it back,
Sadly now we roll it back,
Because there is no more.

HER MOTHER NEVER TOLD HER

'Was a cold winter's evening,
The guests were all leaving,
O'Leary was closing the bar.
When he stepped up and said,
To the lady in red,
"Get out, you can't stay where you are."

She wept a sad tear,
In her bucket of beer,
And thought of the cold night ahead.
When a gentleman dapper
Stepped out of the phone booth,
And these are the words that he said.

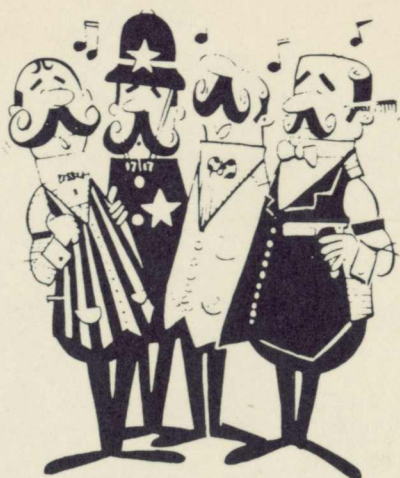

"Her mother never told her,
The things a young girl should know.
About the ways of college men,
And how they come and go—mostly go.
Now age has taken her beauty,
And sin has left its sad scar.
So remember your mothers and sister, boys,
And let her sleep under the bar,
Betwixt the bottles."

DRINK BEER

Drink beer, Drink beer, Oh come drink beer with me.
For I don't give a damn for any old man,
Who won't drink beer with me.

Get out your old silver goblet, with LSC upon it,
And we'll all have another round of beer.
For It's not for knowledge that we come to college,
But to raise HELL while we're here.

GLORIOUS BEER

Let me sing you a song of a gargle,
A lotion to me very dear.
I refer to that grand lubricator
That wonderful tonic called beer, boom, boom, boom, boom
Beer, beer, glorious beer,
Fill yourself right up to here.
Don't be afraid of it,
Drink till you're made of it,
Drink up that old lager beer, boom, boom, boom, boom.
Drink a great deal of it, make a whole meal of it,
Come, boys, a rousing good cheer: More beer!
Up with the sale of it,
Down with a bale of it!
Glorious, glorious beer.

DRUNK LAST NIGHT

Drunk last night, drunk the night before,
Gonna get drunk tonight like we've never been drunk before,
For when we're drunk we're as happy as can be,
For we all go to LSC
Singing glorious, glorious.

One keg of beer for the four of us,
Sing glory be to God that there are no more of us,
For one of us could drink it all alone.
All alone (damn near), all alone (damn near).
Glory be to God that there are no more of us,
For one of us could drink it all alone.

OH IT'S BEER BEER BEER

Oh it's beer beer beer that makes you want to cheer,
In the corps, in the corps,
Oh it's beer beer beer that makes you want to cheer,
In the Quartermaster, Quartermaster corps.

My eyes are dim, I cannot see.
I did hey not ho bring my specs with me.

I'm half crazy over your foamy brew.

Staring at you, across the bar, without any drink in my hand

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF VERMONT STATE COLLEGES

The transfer of control of the Vermont State Colleges from the State Board of Education to the present Board of Trustees on July 1, 1962, was not only a great boon to the overworked State Board of Education, but opened the way for an impressive advance in higher education in Vermont. The present Board, pictured above, actually worked on the problems of the colleges for almost a year before the formal assumption of control. This conscientious concern with the colleges has already shown notable results. The membership of the Board is as follows: Chairman, Mr. H. Ward Bedford of Cornwall; Vice-Chairman, Mr. George Van Santvoord of Bennington; Secretary, Miss Mary Jean Simpson, of Craftsbury; Mrs. Frances Carpenter of Fair Haven; Mr. Robert Corley of Wolcott; Mr. Maurice Keenen of Burlington; Mr. Richard W. Mallary of Fairlee; Dr. Edward K. Reiman of Rutland; Mr. Frank M. Santon of Hyde Park. Mr. Keenan was not present when the picture was taken.

Dr. Robert E. Long, President

Some may think that, to the harried administrator, the task of preparing each year some parting words for the graduating class is a chore, or even a bore. For me it is not so. It is an opportunity and a pleasure which I relish. Particularly is this so with the class of 1963. For this is "my class." With you I entered Lyndon in 1959. With you I have suffered and rejoiced, winced and triumphed, wept and laughed. To those who "stay put" in a college while the succeeding academic generations march past, there is a certain sameness about the graduation season, extending even to the proud panoply of the academic procession and the treasured ritual of conferring the degree. And yet to me and to my colleagues who began here when you did this is a very special graduation. In those, moreover, who have been at Lyndon both longer than you and for a shorter time, whether they are officers of the administration or teachers or staff or students, there cannot be one whit less of warmth in their good wishes. In behalf of all of them, and especially in my own behalf, I greet you as graduating seniors and wish you all success and happiness.

J. D. Messick

Dear Students,

You have come through another year with the attendant pleasures and disappointments. These are present with all of us. You can appreciate your successes and benefit by your failures, if you can look at them objectively.

It has been a pleasure to observe your progress during the year. As you have applied yourselves you have become more competent and self-assured. When you have done otherwise an objective for the future has become less attainable. However, in either case there is nothing within reason to which you cannot aspire and attain, because of your youth and the time that lies before you. Let nothing deter you from the realization of your greatest potential. "He can who thinks he can."

To the Seniors, I wish you the greatest possible success. To all other students I advise you to let nothing hinder your progress toward graduation. And upon all of you I pray God's richest blessings. May He ever bless and prosper you for the enrichment of His program wherever you may be.

Your sincere friend,
J. D. Messick,
Dean

To the graduating class of 1963:

My congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1963. Our expectation is that whatever the circumstances or social pressures you face, you will be able to define issues objectively and altruistically. The extent to which you will be free to do this and not be deflected by the need for emotional expression will be determined by the degree of self-understanding you have attained. Let us hope that you have started pursuing such a program and will thereby make a constructive contribution to our society.

Over the past three years the Junior class has decreased greatly but we are still blessed with forty members. The class chose Ken Miller as President, Earle Harris as Vice President, and Deborah Streeter as Secretary-Treasurer.

The final formal dance of the year, which is the most memorable activity, is the Commencement Ball which is sponsored by the Juniors.

Cahill, Treas.

The Sophomore Class when it returned in September felt the loss of many members. However, at the first class meeting, it was found they still had enough members to elect Phil Heath as president, Roger Cartee as vice president, Gail McCafferey as secretary (when Gail left due to illness Agnes Martel was elected secretary), Gerry Cahill as treasurer, and Rossi Vigneault as Student Government representative. Dr. Dupont was elected the class faculty advisor.

The class was responsible for the Christmas Ball and chose "Santa's Toyland" as the theme. Mr. McGowan was called upon for assistance with the decorations and contributed more than his share to the class.

Although small in number the class participated nearly en masse in the winter carnival and was rewarded for its efforts by capturing first place. Gerry Cahill added the most points and won the trophy for the most points in the women's competition.

The Initiation Committee greeted the incoming Freshmen with many demerits. As punishment for obtaining a large quantity of demerits, a group of guilty Freshmen were tried before the Kangaroo Court.

The Freshman Class activities were the Graveyard Smash and the Commencement Breakfast.

Under the capable leadership of our class officers Francis Jacquith President, David Jones Vice President, Joan Streeter Secretary, and Janet Manchester Treasurer, the Freshmen have had a most successful and rewarding year.

The Glee Club under the capable direction of Mr. Christophersen and Mr. Brown, although smaller than in previous years, once again presented an outstanding musical year. Both the Christmas concert and The Pajama Game, the musical, were well produced and received.

The Class of 1963 expresses its thanks to the music department for the opportunity to be a part of the spring musicals throughout its four years.

The wind section shown at the right joins with the Caledonia Strings to provide music for the annual musical. The Strings also accompany the Glee Club at the Christmas concert. The wind section plays jam sessions and at dances during the school year.

The extracurricular activities provided by the music department are not limited to only the Glee Club and orchestra but extend over a wide range of musical activities.

“Lyndon’s atmosphere is conducive to intellectual pursuits.”

LYNDON'S ATMOSPHERE!

What ghost? I don't see a ghost. Do you see a ghost?

ALMA MATER

Above a green and pleasant valley
Beneath an azure northern sky
Fair Lyndon College bids us rally
To sing her praises high.

When the winter stars are shining
Beyond the mountain's highest rim,
Our song of friendship ever binding
Shall rise thy fame to win.

And though the future brings its sorrow
Or though the future brings us grace,
Thy memory fair beyond tomorrow
Time never shall efface.

Chorus

Lyndon! Alma Mater!
Hail to thee forever!
From every loyal son and daughter,
Lyndon! Our own!

VERMONT STATE COLLEGES

FROM THE TABLES DOWN AT LUIE'S

From the tables down at Luie's,
It's the place where "Gunner" dwells.
To the open fields of Lawson's we know so well.
Sit the Raiders all assembled,
With their bottles raised on high,
And the magic of their singing fills the air.

Yes the magic of their drinking,
Of the booze we love so well,
Knickerbocker, Schlitz, Black Label and the rest.
We will serenade our Luie,
While beer and booze shall flow.
Then we'll pass out, and be forgotten with the rest.

We're poor little pigs, who have lost our way,
Oink, oink, oink.

We're pink little pigs, who have gone astray,
Oink, oink, oink.

Lawson's Raiders off on a spree,
Doomed from here to LSC.
Lord have mercy on LSC.
Drink, drank, drunk.

MERRILY WE ROLL THE KEG (Tune: "Goodnight Ladies")

Merrily we roll the keg,
Roll the keg, roll the keg,
Merrily we roll the keg,
Across the barroom floor.

Speedily we drink it down,
Drink it down, drink it down,
Speedily we drink it down.
Until there is no more.

Sadly now we roll it back,
Roll it back, roll it back,
Sadly now we roll it back,
Because there is no more.

HER MOTHER NEVER TOLD HER

'Was a cold winter's evening,
The guests were all leaving,
O'Leary was closing the bar.
When he stepped up and said,
To the lady in red,
"Get out, you can't stay where you are."

She wept a sad tear,
In her bucket of beer,
And thought of the cold night ahead.
When a gentleman dapper
Stepped out of the phone booth,
And these are the words that he said.

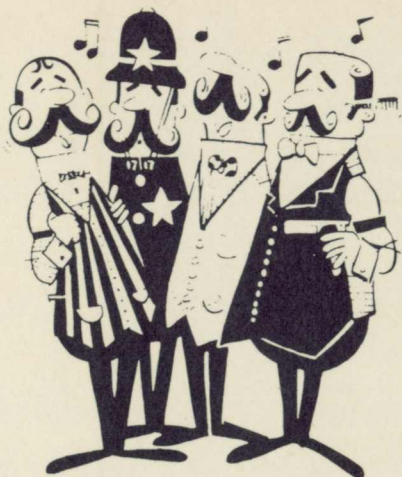

"Her mother never told her,
The things a young girl should know.
About the ways of college men,
And how they come and go—mostly go.
Now age has taken her beauty,
And sin has left its sad scar.
So remember your mothers and sister, boys,
And let her sleep under the bar,
Betwixt the bottles."

DRINK BEER

Drink beer, Drink beer, Oh come drink beer with me.
For I don't give a damn for any old man,
Who won't drink beer with me.

Get out your old silver goblet, with LSC upon it,
And we'll all have another round of beer.
For It's not for knowledge that we come to college,
But to raise HELL while we're here.

GLORIOUS BEER

Let me sing you a song of a gargle,
A lotion to me very dear.
I refer to that grand lubricator
That wonderful tonic called beer, boom, boom, boom, boom
Beer, beer, glorious beer,
Fill yourself right up to here.
Don't be afraid of it,
Drink till you're made of it,
Drink up that old lager beer, boom, boom, boom, boom.
Drink a great deal of it, make a whole meal of it,
Come, boys, a rousing good cheer: More beer!
Up with the sale of it,
Down with a bale of it!
Glorious, glorious beer.

DRUNK LAST NIGHT

Drunk last night, drunk the night before,
Gonna get drunk tonight like we've never been drunk before,
For when we're drunk we're as happy as can be,
For we all go to LSC
Singing glorious, glorious.

One keg of beer for the four of us,
Sing glory be to God that there are no more of us,
For one of us could drink it all alone.
All alone (damn near), all alone (damn near).
Glory be to God that there are no more of us,
For one of us could drink it all alone.

OH IT'S BEER BEER BEER

Oh it's beer beer beer that makes you want to cheer,
In the corps, in the corps,
Oh it's beer beer beer that makes you want to cheer,
In the Quartermaster, Quartermaster corps.

My eyes are dim, I cannot see.
I did hey not ho bring my specs with me.

BARKEEP, BARKEEP

(Tune: "Daisy, Daisy")

Barkeep, barkeep, give me your answer true,
I'm half crazy over your foamy brew.
I don't have any money, but wouldn't I look funny,
Staring at you, across the bar, without any drink in my hand
